

Component #4: Parent Liaison Services

Our P.I.C. Coordinator serves as a “liaison” between the parents of our juvenile justice children and the Juvenile Probation Department. He/she is the “GOOD GUY” for the parents while our organization and Juvenile Probation Officers often must take the role of the “BAD GUY” during the juvenile’s time in the juvenile justice system. Because of his/her close involvement with the families and his/her many in-home visits the P.I.C. Coordinator offers valuable information and insight into the case for the consideration of the officers’ Case Management of a juvenile and their family.
