

Component # 9: Creative Arts

Our youth are gifted and talented young people. We believe our participants should be offered an opportunity to discover and develop their many talents. Our youth learn to write and perform skits. The topics of these skits are life lessons. At times we enjoy “clowning” through this program. During these times, youth learn how to apply clown makeup and to perform as clowns.